

The Ash Project in Numbers

Estimated number of mature/semi-mature ash trees in Kent to be

1,120,340*

*This figure was calculated by extrapolating data from tetrads surveyed in 2018 multiplied by the number of Kent 2km tetrads returning records for Ash. Data source: Kent County Council Resilience and Emergency Planning Service Ash Records.

1,150 trees planted

Public Sculpture on view for 730 days

65 Sessions for education, training or participation were held over the 18 months of the project

30 artists commissioned or exhibited

110 The Ash Archive exhibition open days

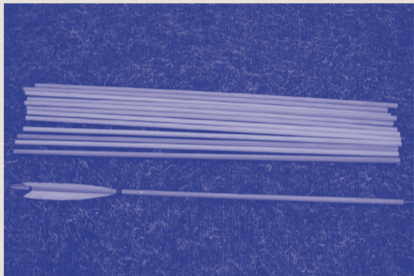

General

324 people attended walks

3,037 people attended The Ash Project Public Events

492 people attended workshops

Events

450 students engaged with Outdoor Studios

1,270 attended The Ash Archive Exhibition

Social Media

2,626

followers on social media channels

23,766 visitors to our website
15,062 engagements on Twitter
9,268 engagements on Instagram (photo + video)
3,459 engagements on Facebook
1,114 views on youtube

Audience responses

100% people surveyed said that they enjoyed The Ash Project events either very much or quite a lot and would recommend events like this to their friends

64% of people surveyed said they learnt how to identify an ash during the event

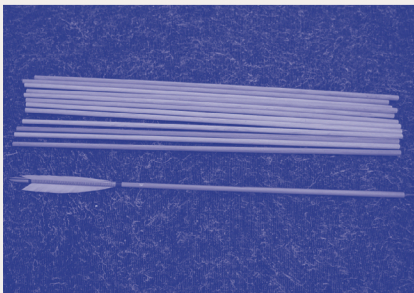

Of the people surveyed people came from over

31 towns and villages in Kent

77% % of people surveyed said they learnt more about the heritage we share with ash during the event

11,500 handcrafted ash arrows were produced to make the sculptures

99% of our followers on twitter also have an interest in dogs

5 new ash chairs were created in ash project workshops

Fun Facts